

Commencing on the day of installation, IDEAL WATER, LLC shall provide, free of charge, service, parts and labor as required during the first six (6) months of ownership, for any necessary repairs of the water conditioner, in order to maintain the unit in good working condition, to be provided within a reasonable time, and provided that the equipment remains in same location as originally installed. This guarantee shall be null and void for the following: a) damage caused by willful negligence or other misuse of the water conditioner, other than ordinary wear and tear; b) change of ownership; c) unit was installed incorrectly.

An extended warranty is available for purchase with this product.